ANNOUNCEMENTS

Take Control of Your Winter Energy Bill

Click here for tips and tricks on savings!

We understand many people are struggling with ongoing inflation and the cost of living, especially here in Southern California. Looking ahead to winter, there are resources to help you plan and prepare for the season. Longer nights and cooler temperatures can mean increased energy use and higher bills.

Dignity at Home - Aging and Independence Services

Under this program, eligible participants can receive a FREE fall prevention kit to prevent falls and fall-related injuries and encourage healthy aging. This includes plug-in LED nightlights, a non-slip bathmat, cord clips, and a digital pill box among other items.
